If some people would have more to say about religion and less about politics there would be better times. Rev. McKinster and Smith went down our creek on the 16th inst. en route to Walnut Gap.

D. L. Thomas has left for parts unknown.

H. J. Salyers, the road overseer, is calling on the boys now.

Our creek is blessed with one store, 4 blacksmiths, 2 preachers, 1 steam mill, 333 o'possum hunters, 3 same mills and a base ball team. The Widow Moore got several pennels of fence burned on the 15th inst.

Gus Moore will soon begin to hold the check lines. He has a fine span of young mules.

Luther Pigg and wife are visiting at C. C. Hays.

M. K. Hays has his water mill almost completed. All he wants to turn the mill and plenty of corn to grind.

Jesse McKinster says all may eat o'possum that wants to, but give him rabbit soup.

We are sorry to hear of Dr. Webb's protracted illness.

Perhaps some of our readers would like to know in what respect Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is better than any other. We will tell you when this remedy is taken as soon as a cold has been contracted, and before it has become settled in the system, it will counteract the effect of the cold and greatly lessen its severity, and it is the only remedy that will do this. It acts in perfect harmony with nature and aids nature in relieving the lungs, opening the secretions, liquefying the mucus and causing its expulsion from the air cells of the lungs and restoring the system to a strong and healthy condition. No other remedy in the market possesses these remarkable properties. No other will cure a cold so quickly. For sale by Louisa Drug Co.

Few blue-eyed people are said to be color blind, and we're told that women as a rule have better eyesight than men; but on the other hand, three women have false teeth to every two men who wear them. This, we take it is owing to their greater regard for personal appearance, than that the fair sex is more dentally deficient than their admirers. It is not without interest to note that not a few people living have double rows of teeth; while they are assured by an artist that only one person in 4800 has a perfect nose.

There is a fortune in store for the inventor who discovers some cheap, convenient and secure means of holding a woman's hat in place. Just now the hats are fastened on with a long pin, which passes through the hat on both sides and through the folds of the hair. Every time the hat is put on it is pierced with two new holes, and the best hat is soon ruined in this way, and three times out of five the scalp is pricked by the needle before it goes through the hair, and after all the trouble the hat is never secure, for every wind blows it up in front. The inventors ought to give the matter some attention.

S. H. Chisell, New Castle, W. Va., was troubled with Neuralgia and Rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, a appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg eight years standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and a bottle of Backen's Anker Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Sparks, Catawba, O., had a large liver fever on his leg doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Backen's Anker Salve cured him entirely. Sold at W. T. Evans Drugstore.

Kate Field, the brilliant Washington editor, who claims that her time is worth ten dollars an hour, recently indulged in a courageous attack on the street sweeping costumes so universally worn by her sex. Kate remarks: "Every time I order a new gown the dressmaker informs me that short skirts are not worn. I tell her that it makes no difference whatever; that long skirts in the street are filthy, extravagant, burdensome and dangerous, and I'll have none of them. Eventually I have my own way. Having reformed ourselves without frightening our friends, what is the next practical move? To endeavor to influence by example and timely persuasion, women who are ready for a change, or who have some regard for opinions. Beyond this I see no means of reaching my sex, unless reformers capture the leaders of fashion." Good for Kate.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dread disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer the Thousand Dollar reward for any case that fails to cure. Send for list of Testimonials. Address, F. J. Dr. E. E. TAYLOR has been appointed pension examining surgeon at Morgantown.

Things are getting very much tangled at Frankfort. There is a stubborn deadlock over the corporation bill, and there will probably be another deadlock over the revenue bill. The senate, on the 13th, passed the latter measure with amendments tacked on that, it is predicted, will never be consented to by the house. One of these amendments reestablishes the auditor's agents, and places their appointment in the hands of the auditor. The senate killed the reformed election bill, passed by the house, and both branches appointed conference committees to consider the corporation bill, whose make-up insures a non-adoption of its report by the house.

The Louisville Times advises editorially that Kentucky abandon all idea of an exhibit at the World's fair. The advice is based on the complications that have arisen due to politics, official disputes and questionable legislation, rendering the $100,000 appropriation unavailable until after recourse is taken to the courts, together with the liabilities that have been offered Congressmen Breckinridge by the Chicago press and public.

The Kentucky veterans of the Mexican war will meet November 13, at Frankfort, in response to the call issued by Vice-President McPherson. They will elect a president to succeed Gen. Speed S. Fry and a successor to Secretary Jennings.

While the jury was out making its verdict, Ekers arose and took off his coat, and when the verdict of guilty was read he rushed at Tipton and struck at him. Tipton dodged and Ekers clutched him, and parties then interferred and separated them. Ekers was fined $3 for contempt and was sent to jail to pay that and his other fine. And now the police court will get a whack at him on the assault.

Three prisoners escaped from the Lawrence county jail last Saturday night. The one of them from which prisoners have heretofore escaped has never been made secure, the door being kept locked to prevent the prisoners getting into it. On this occasion they sawed the locks off of the door and escaped easily enough. They were Angus Kauski, a foreigner, confined for stealing a suit of clothes at Peach Orchard; and Drew Compton and a man named Gridlin, who were serving out fines. The jail is not nearly so secure as the town lock up.

Horse Thief Captured.

Al. Dapley, of Logan county, W. Va., was arrested just across the river yesterday, charged with horse stealing. He confessed and implicated others. He stole two horses from a man named Hatfield in Logan county last week and sold them in Louisa. There was a reward of $100 for him.

Two Men Hurt.

On last Friday two men were injured by a horse falling upon them while at work on the new railroad trestle two miles below here. The horse was raised by a team which could not be stopped when the horse had reached a vertical position, and it was pulled on over, catching Harmon Wheeler and Tivis Martin. The former was severely lamed and the latter had his leg broken just above the ankle. They were well cared for by the contractors, Messrs. Molcher & Slattery.

Hon. Thos. H. Paynter is deservedly popular with all his constituents, of whatever party. This is not simply an idle statement, but we have proof of its truth. In the discharge of his official duties, he does not stop to inquire to what party a constituent who appeals to him belongs, but if it is a just claim he gives it prompt attention.

The family of Sheriff A. J. Wilson has suffered a very sad bereavement in the death of his second daughter, Miss Mollie, which occurred last Saturday. She was sick only a short time of typhoid fever, but the disease was of the most malignant type and her system, previously weakened by ill health, could not withstand the inroads of the malady. Miss Mollie was a beautiful girl of nineteen years, much liked by her numerous friends and relatives. She was buried from the Baptist Church Sunday afternoon, and her remains were followed to the grave by a large concourse of people. We extend our warmest sympathy to the bereaved family.

The friends of John H. Thompson, present County Commissioner, are determined to push him into the race for County Judge next time. We take pleasure in saying that we believe him to be one of the most straight-forward, honorable men in the county and that he would make a most acceptable county judge. In his public service he has shown himself to possess the ability necessary to a judicious discharge of public duties; and that he has the executive ability and good common sense to decide demands. The News does not advocate the cause of any particular Democrat before the convention nominates, but it is but justice to a worthy man to notice his deserving qualities.

It has been reported that Mr. Thompson's relations were such that he would not be strictly loyal to his party in the coming election. We have the best assurance that the report is wholly untrue.

Charley Caldwell, D. H. P. P., (Preacher of Politics) Republican candidate for Congress in the district just across the river, was in Cassville yesterday with his South Methodist voice and sanctimonious ruminance and preached in his hearers anything but orthodox Republican doctrine. His inspiration was evidently received from strange gods, and his speech and manner did not suggest to a listener that the Rev. Charley felt sure he had ever seen anything in the Great Book that conformed to the principles he is supposed to represent. He wandered from the text which was handed down to him by the lords of protection and struck out for himself in a few instances. He is absolutely against the Force Bill and niggers in the white schools? Why, Charley, you are back-sliding! The pure air of these Democratic mountains is developing your manhood so rapidly that if Steve Elkins doesn't get hold of you and pump you chuck full of Republican grace right quick you'll be a Democrat before the election comes off. Reader, if you don't believe it you ought to go and hear him talk about what a nice thing the removing of the tariff from sugar has proved to be for the people. He got so enthusiastic that we looked for him to beseech the Lord to swipe out the whole business.

Charley doesn't do the Republican dodging act gracefully. He isn't built that way.

Among the other outrageous misrepresentations being imposed upon the ignorant people by some local Republicans is a statement that Grover Cleveland once favored the Force Bill. A falsehood of deeper dye could not be imagined. Even before the beginning of the Force Bill agitation he had clearly indicated the lines upon which he would condemn such a measure. You should mistake nothing a man would tell you that is as utterly false and the Republican Senate defeated the Force Bill, which is barely untrue. The Republicans had a very small majority in the Senate. Every Democrat in the body stood at his post and fought the measure, and two or three Republicans refused to act with their party and the atrocious scheme was thus defeated. The Republicans tried every means within their power to force those honest Republicans to vote for the Force Bill. President Harrison used his personal influence and all the means he dared to secure the passage of the bill.

Dr. Cease was in Ashland yesterday.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

Through trains will be put on the N. & W. November 1st.

Capt. Jas. Kirk, a venerable citizen of Eden, Martin county, died last Monday.

Criminal Court is in session in Floyd county. Col. L. T. Moore is presiding.

In the Johnson Criminal Court last week the murder case against Sloan was tried and the jury hung. Six were for acquittal and six against it.

The Democrats of Pike county have become aroused over the action of the Mountain Monitor in making a deal with Anxier and are organizing clubs all over the county and preparing to down the opposition. It will prove the costliest move to Anxier that he has ever made.

Railroad Damages.

The N. & W. Railroad caught it heavily in the Wayne court last week. Verdicts carrying damages to the amount of $10,500 were rendered by the juries. $1,500 was for Nat. Turner, father of Pearly Turner, who was killed on the railroad last spring. $9,000 damages were awarded Mrs. Wm. Higgins. The attorneys get one-half that amount, it is said.

John Austin, who killed Sherar-Paine on Kiah creek, Wayne county, W. Va., last summer, was last week found guilty of manslaughter and sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary.

Last week by a hokus-pokus feat of prestidigitatation the management of the editorial department of the Mountain Monitor was shifted into the hands of Col. J. M. Robb, a veteran republican journalist. Then he was raised from kitchen to attic; the democratic ticket was cast shieldward and that self-coastituted apostle of big Sandy democracy announced to an astonished public that politics was no longer "in it." Worse still! Listen, ye gods. The Monitor after deserting the party in which it was born turns and espouses the enemy's cause, coming out enthusiastically for Andy Anxier for circuit judge. The owners of the plant, who are democrats, enjoined the publication of the Monitor as any other than a democratic paper, and the circuit judge, who is a republican, dissolved the injunction; and so she goes. "Lay on, MacDuff!"--Paintsville Courier.

The first legal hanging in Cabell county, W. Va., will take place soon. The highest court has decided that Allen Harrison must hang for the murder of his sweetheart Bettie Adams last April.

Killing at Dunlow.

John Thompson was shot and killed at Dunlow, Wayne county, W. Va., last Tuesday by Dr. Jas. Thornbury, a practicing physician of that place. It seems that Thompson had some slight grievance against Thornbury. The latter returned home from a trip on this occasion and found Thompson on his premises swearing and raising blades in general, and promptly shot him. Thornbury is a quiet, law-abiding citizen. Thompson was a bad character and often in trouble. He was a brother to Wade Thompson, who was killed a year or two ago.

Another For Wayne.

On a long creek, in Wayne county, W. Va., on last Saturday, Lon Glickerson truck Frank Kitz on the head with a heavy stick of wood, producing injuries which caused his death on last Tuesday. The causes which led to the killing were of a trivial nature. Glickerson's wife had permission to get apples from Kitz's orchard for family use, and she gathered some and sold them; whereupon Kitz intimated that they were stolen. While they were working together at a time Kitz's wife came up and made a slight reference to the matter. Kitz was at the time on his knees at the cane mill and Glickerson struck him on the back of the head without warning. $200 reward has been offered for the murderer.

The United States Supreme Court has decided unanimously that the Michigan law allowing a division of the electoral vote of the State according to Congressional districts is constitutional. This will give the Democrats from five to eight of Michigan's twelve electoral votes.

"During my term of service in the army I contracted chronic diarrhoea," says A. E. Bending, of Halsey, Oregon. "Since then I have used a great amount of medicine, but when I found any that would give me relief they would injure my stomach, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was brought to notice. I used it and will say it is the only remedy that gave me permanent relief and no bad results follow." For sale by Louisa Drug Co.
